Queen and Princess Contest

Rules, Release, and Code of Conduct

Signature Required For Participation

As the parents/legal guardian of the participant named below, or as the participant, I do hereby agree to abide by the rules and regulations as set forth by the Lanesville Heritage Committee. I agree to hold the Lanesville Heritage Pageants Director and volunteers harmless of any damages or liabilities due to theft, accident, or injury during or resulting from my child's participation in this pageant. I understand and agree that should an act of God (earthquake, fire or any other act or nature) cause the cancellation of the pageant, that said pageant will be canceled without the benefit of refund; however, the pageant will be rescheduled at another time and location. I understand the judges' decisions are final. I understand that good sportsmanship is required at all times. This includes the contest, parents, and/or guests. I understand that failure to show good sportsmanship will result in disqualification of the contestant without refund and forfeiture of any awards received. I agree and understand that all fees are non-refundable and nontransferable. If I am crowned as Heritage Queen or Princess or as a Runner-Up for the Heritage Pageants, I agree to give permission to my current school administration release of any disciplinary action that may arise during my reign to Lanesville Heritage Committee.

I agree and give my permission to Lanesville Heritage Committee, Pageant Director, and Lanesville Elementary and High School, St John's Lutheran School to use any and photographs, and/or videotapes for publicity purposes.

Queen and Princess Contest

Rules, Release and Code of Conduct

1. Judges decisions are final. Talking with the Judges while they are judging is prohibited. If any family, friend or contestant, or contestants themselves are caught violating this, the contestant will be disqualified.

2. Good sportsmanship is required at all times. Failure to show good sportsmanship (including participant, parents and guests) will result in disqualification. The contestant will receive no refund and forfeiture of any and all awards. It may also result in contestant not being allowed to compete in the pageant the following year. This includes after the pageant on all social network sites (including but not limited to Facebook, MySpace, Twitter etc.).

3. Lanesville Heritage Committee reserves the right to refuse admittance to anyone that the Director, Heritage Committee Board Member and School Administration feel may be a security risk. This includes all pageant events.

4. Lanesville Heritage Committee and the host building are not responsible for loss due to injury incurred at, or in the travel to and from the pageant. We are also not responsible for any thefts that may occur.

5. Lanesville Heritage Committee, PTSA Board and School Administration require high moral standards; therefore any contestant or winner caught engaged in such public acts such as public altercations (including those on or off school property), drinking/drugs, smoking, swearing, etc. will be immediately disqualified at the discretion of the director, Lanesville Heritage Committee Board and School Administration. (This includes but is not limited to questionable participation in use of online activities including vulgarity and bullying on social network sites(including but not limited to Facebook, MySpace, Twitter etc.)

6. All talent should be limited to less than 4 minutes.

7. All contestants will participate in the Heritage Parade. Please wear the dress that the contestant wore in the pageant.
